Here I will put my versions of fairy tales.

Reason is: we all forget (not only) when growing up, to question things (as child we do this so often)

BTW: did you question today something?

I see a lot of babies/kids testing all the time (non-software).

They see something new and then they grab it, explore it - and also they have proven that they can destroy pretty anything. They even do this to the danger of their own body sometimes.

Didn't you do this also as baby/kid (as far as you can remember of course :-))?

Most people loose this ability when growing up.

It is like in Peter Pan: generally adults do not see the mystical creatures/world anymore :-(

So, let me bring you now back to old times, where you heard a similar story and wondered, if the story might have been different.

I would like to figure out in cooperation with you some approaches how to solve the problems.

Please note, that there can be many ways to reach a solution - I invite you, to think of the impossible.

After reading, perhaps you would like to post a comment in the forum ?

P.S.

if you have another story you would like to share,

I would be more than happy to know this - either post it yourself or send it by mail.

Thank you
